

Theology and Action Research Network
at University of Roehampton, London.

Theological Action Research Training
22nd and 23rd April 2021
9am to 12 midday (UK time) both days

Aimed at doctoral students and researchers, the training is designed to equip you with the knowledge and skills to embark on your own theological action research project. The training will be interactive and conversational and take place over Zoom.

The timings are chosen to enable participation in Asia and Australia and New Zealand.

The training is run by Dr Helen Cameron, Research Associate of the Centre for Baptist Studies at Regent's Park College, Oxford and Dr James Butler, postdoctoral researcher at the University of Roehampton and MA lecturer at the Church Mission Society, Oxford.

Price: £35 doctoral students, £50 waged researchers
An early bird discount of £5 will be available
